

Incorporation of directions as provisioned under clause 11(a) of the regulation in the prospectus/advertisement issued for admission

As per the verdict of the honorable supreme court,ragging is totally banned and any one found guilty of ragging is liable to be severely punished. Students and their parents must sign affidavit to the effect that they are aware of the law against ragging and agrees to any punishment meted out in case the student found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging. Ragging is a criminal offence and cases of raging may be handed to the police. Cases of ragging ,if any should be brought to the attention of authorities as early as possible.